a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

1. Peaceful coexistence—that's how My people see Me, deal with Me, and think of Me, so often—I'm doing My thing and they're doing they're thing, I have My schedule and they have their schedule. That's how so many of My people think of Me and operate their lives like—adhering to this kind of thinking, not having any idea of the intimacy that I have designed for them to enjoy with Me, or of My big world that I have for them, if they could but trust Me enough to come to Me to find out from Me what I have for them.

2. So many want only to take the crumbs when they could fare so sumptuously, so elegantly, in such splendor, at My table, at My table, at My table with Me, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Yet so many are too busy to hear My invitation and the crystal clear clarion call that you are trumpeting forth. So busy, so busy, so busy are My people going about and doing things, things, things, making money, money, money, and not coming to Me for what I can give them—what I've already given them, if they actually knew it.

3. So much provision, so much splendor, so much elegance, so much finery, so much of a realm that My people have not pressed in to, awaits those who decide I am truly who I say I am, and I do what I say I will do. I have given gifts to them and to all My people, and let them operate in them I do, I have, I will, I request, I await, I await, I await.

4. Ted, you want more specifics and specifics I have given you at times and so many more, so many more I have for you, but Ted, know that I must build a firm foundation in the words I am giving you for those beside you, and those behind you. I have told you more than once, you write for Me, you write for Me, you write for Me.

5. And regardless of who comes to you and speaks of "your" repetitiveness, know this, I am speaking and I am writing and I choose to write how I choose to write and I say what I choose to say and those who do not have time, time, time to read what I am saying with crystal clear clarity through your/My clarion call of intimacy and the new things I am doing, are simply too busy, and pay they will, for forfeiting they are, of My presentation of Myself through these words of Me, Me, Me.

6. Peaceful coexistence, running to and fro, making provision for themselves in fear, fear, fear, trying to make sure they have enough money, money, money, and stay up with this and that and whoever they think is important. Oh Ted, why don't they come to Me more? Why aren't they coming to Me now, while there is still time to mature at My knee and feast with Me on My delicacies that I have prepared specifically for them, for them, individually with their name and “DNA” that matches only them, awaiting for them?

7. Why do so many of My people want to know me only so elementarily, when they could, can, know Me in such maturity and side-splitting power? Power, power, majesty, splendor, Ted, why, why, why?

8. I’ll tell you why. The deceiver has deceived. The robber has robbed. The destroyer has destroyed. The delayer has delayed. The diverter has diverted. Busyness has pre-empted Me. Busyness is exalted as a virtue. Rest is scorned. Solitude is scorned. Prayer is not even seen as a prerequisite to knowing Me, fully knowing Me. The deceiver is so effective Ted, so subtle, so pervasive, ever spreading his value system into My people who are too busy to even come to Me to ask Me about the values that they’re buying into.

9. And so many buy into so many philosophies and high-minded deceits of the enemy, the enemy of freedom, the enemy of deeply fulfilling relationships, the enemy of My gifts, the enemy of My design, the enemy of My Me in Mine.

10. I come, I call Ted, I am here. I am with them. I am new and I am not old. I change and I change and I have always changed, though My love is constant and only deepening for My people, My creation, who I long so for, who I long so for, who I long for so deeply.

11. I want you to be people of love, My people—people of Me, Me, Me—exhibiting Me to My world and everyone in it. I told you they would know you, by your love, by My love through you to them. Love, love, love My people My people.

12. Be not so busy you cannot come sit at My table, My feet, My knee, and listen to Me whisper revelation and truth into you, filling you with rapturous melodies of heavenly revelation, revelation, revelation, that empowers, that unlocks your gifts, that unlocks your personality, unlocks My design for you, your life, your future, your family, your finances, and every other thing of concern to you.

13. Why do you insist on staying up with sports or news or this or that or people of even good things, good things, good people, when it costs you time with Me, with Me making you to walk in high places, with your hand in My hand.

14. Why do you insist on such control, control, control, when in My hand is such abundance, abundance, abundance?

15. Let My people know these things I have asked, I have stated. Read them My words that I have written through you. Share your heart. Teach them to pray. Teach them to not be so busy. Teach them to wait before Me. Teach them to dance and be free with Me and in My presence and follow the leading of My Spirit, My Holy Spirit, Me, Me, Me. Teach them to mature and spoon feed those that need spoon feeding. Give the milk to the milk and meat to the meat.

16. Be Me and have fun doing what I have instructed you to do. Have fun and honor Me, and Ted, I will, I will, I will honor you.

17. I am a giver.
I am a lover.
I am your friend.
I want to be their friend.
I want them to know Me as much as you, and Ted, more, more, more.

18. Propel, propel, propel.
Convene, collaborate, move forward with the things I have instructed.

19. People come.
Provision comes.
Provision is here.
Abundance is here.
I am here.
I am.
I am.
I am.

And I thank you.

20. Please write more on your computer like this and I will write more on your computer like this, and we both will get more done.

21. All limitations on you I take off—all—removed—you're free. Be you. Be Me. Let me come through you to every spirit/soul and enjoy them and laugh.

22. Enjoy Me and serious be little.

23. I honor you.
24. I honor all who read this and seek Me. I honor all who will take time with Me. I honor all who will risk, risk, risk what you have risked, and Ted, won, won, won.

25. I thank you.
I thank you.
I thank you.

26. Let Barbi know how much I love her and how much I delight in her creativity, in her using now the creativity I have given her, given her, given her so much of, and more, more, more is there as she continues to create in what she is now using.

27. I love her.
I love her.
I love her.

28. Be kind, affectionate, loving one another, in your body, in your family, in My family, with all My family being Me to and with all of My family, in Me, Me, Me.

29. I thank you.
I thank you.
I thank you, so much, so much, so very, very, very much.

Thank you.
